Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 25th April 1866, No. 972, Revenue Department.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning the employment of a temporary establishment, and a discount of ten per cent. in wholesale dealings, for disposing of the salt stored at Manjancolum, in the Tinnevelly District, and requesting the Board to report how much the salt has cost Government, and why so large a quantity has been stored at so petty a depôt.

1. Communicated to the Collector of Tinnevelly, who is now authorized to offer a discount of ten per cent. per heap, to effect rapid sale of the salt stored at Manjancolum. The sanction for a temporary establishment will not, however, be availed of, as, under the circumstances noted in the correspondence quoted in the margin, the application for such an establishment was subsequently withdrawn.
