Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 19th May 1866.

No. 343. Read the following letter from A. L. Lister, Esq., M. C. S., to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 11th May 1866 :—

1. I have the honor to report that when the Gazette of the 13th ultimo, containing my appointment to Ganjam, was received at Madanapalle, Mr. Smith told me that he would make an application to Government for me to be allowed to remain in the Cuddapah District, and directed me to continue to work there until the result of the reference should be known.

2. The Government Order, 25th April 1866, No. 973, was communicated to me at Madanapalle, the head quarters of the Sub-division, (to which I had been permanently posted by Mr. Smith,) on the 29th ultimo.

3. I gave over all the papers, &c., in my possession to Mr. Gibson on the 4th instant, and left Madanapalle on that day.

No. 344.

ORDER THEREON, 19th May 1866, No. 1,192.

Miscellaneous.

Mr. Lister's appointment will take effect from the 30th ultimo, the day succeeding that on which he received the final order of Government.

(True Extract.)
