Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th January 1866.

No. 262. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th December 1865, No. 7,998.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Nellore, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 13th November 1865, No. 279:—

1. In concluding the permanent Settlement of the TSundi estate, a sum of Rupees 3,000 was deducted from the assests, to enable the Zemindar to provide for the maintenance of his relatives, and a list shewing their names, and the amount payable to each of them, being appended to paragraph 5 of the "Kabuliat," or engagement, executed by him on the 10th September 1842.

2. The relatives were eight in number; the allowance allotted to them amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 1,280 per annum. In the event of the death of any of these individuals, the Zemindar has, in paragraph 6 of the said document, entered into an agreement to continue, for the support of their family, the whole or such portion of the allowance as may be determined by the Collector, with the approbation of the Board and Government, on a consideration of the circumstances of each case.

3. The object which these preliminary remarks have in view, is the settlement of certain claims for the continuance of the monthly allowance of Rupees 20, entered in the aforesaid list in the name of "Pidda Ankapa Naidu's son Ankappa Naidu," who is reported to have died on 9th March 1864 at Surapuram, in the Hyderabad territory.

4. The deceased has left behind him his mother, widow, three sons, one daughter, and two brothers as follows:—

Relationship to the deceased.	Names.	Age.	Their residence at present.
		Years.
Mother	Nandamma	80	TSundi.
Widow	Chinnamma...	40	Do.
First Son	Ankapa Naidu	25	Do.
Second do.	Kumara Naidu	20	Surapuram.
Third do.	Isenara Naidu	18	TSundi.
Daughter...	Bangaramma		Surapuram.
First younger brother ...	Nanab Naidu	53	Do.
Second do. do. ...	Channa Naidu	50	TSundi.

5. There is a dispute in the family as to how the allowance should be continued, and a long inquiry has been made into rival claims. It would, however, be a waste of time were I to weary the Board, and the Government, with details as to these claims, and how, in my opinion, 20 Rupees a month should be divided amongst the contending claimants. And instead of going into these details, I beg to recommend that the allowance be continued in the name of the eldest son, and, if necessary, the apportionment entrusted to arbitrators.

---

1. Ordered that the foregoing letter be submitted for the orders of Government, with the Board's recommendation that the allowance of Rupees 20 per mensem, enjoyed by the deceased, be continued to his eldest son, Ankapa Naidu, with the arrears from 10th March 1864, (the day following that on which the former individual died,) for the maintenance of himself and the surviving members of his father's family.

2. In the event of any disputes arising as to the partition of the allowance amongst the members of this family, the Collector may settle the matter by arbitration, as proposed in the conclusion of his letter, and report the result for the Board's information.

3. Mr. Dykes will be requested invariably to submit applications of this nature in the Tabular form prescribed for reporting lapses of Ináms and Yeomiahs.

No. 263. ORDER THEREON, 17th January 1866, No. 134.
