Column 8 of Statement.—Recommendation of the Collector, and the grounds on which it was made.

1. It appears that Hafiz Mahomed was appointed originally to the office of Cazi, of the Town of Porto Novo, by the Nabob Wallajah, on a salary of one Rupee per diem, as shewn by a Purwannah issued under his seal, dated the 10th Rabiul Auwal Hegira 1190, (A. D. 1776, April 29th). In 1806, the British Government sanctioned* a yearly salary, amounting to Rupees 354, in lieu of the above. The original holder of the office died on 6th November 1816, and was succeeded by his son, Mahomed Abdul Vaheed, in accordance with instructions from the Board of Revenue, dated 7th July 1817, and upon his removal from office, on the 13th January 1830, Moorad Baud Shaw was appointed to the vacancy, by order of the Central Provincial Court, Chittoor, dated 13th April 1831. He was, also, removed on the 20th February 1836, when the deceased Yeomiahdar, Mahomed Kabbeer Khan, (grandson of the original Cazi, and eldest son of Mahomed Abdul Vaheed,) succeeded to the Yeomiah, on the 8th August 1836, by order of the Provincial Court, dated 25th July 1836.—Vide also paragraph 5 of Extract from Minutes of Consultation, 26th December 1839, No. 1,037.

* 31st July 1806.

2. Mahomed Kabbeer Khan died 24th January last, leaving behind him two widows, one by regular marriage, and another by Nicka, two sons by the former, and one by the latter, besides a brother, Mahomed Ameen-ood Deen, and cousin Meer Gulam Mohadeen.

3. Mahomed Oommur, eldest son of the deceased by the first and regular married wife, requests the registry of the Yeomiah in his name, and the disbursement of the arrears, amounting to Rupees 88-8-0, from 12th January, to 11th April 1866.

4. The two widows of the other two sons, as well as brother and cousin of the deceased, all consent to the registry of the Yeomiah in the name of the claimant, Mahomed Oommur.

5. The present claimant has been performing the duties of the office of Cazi ever since the death of his father, such as giving consent to marriages, settling disputes, registering deeds, and giving Fatwas in conformity with the provisions of the Mahomedan Law. His competency to hold this office has been tested by the Town Cazi of Chellumbrum.

6. The Sub-Collector reports that the present claimant is competent to succeed his father, and has been performing the duties of the office, and he recommends, therefore, that he be appointed to succeed his late father.

7. Under these circumstances, the Collector sees no objection to the Yeomiah being registered in the name of the present claimant, Mahomed Oommur, and the disbursement to him of the arrears due, amounting to Rupees 88-8-0, from 12th January, to 11th April 1866.

1. Under the Orders quoted in the margin, the Board of Revenue sanction the registry of the religious service Yeomiah in question, amounting to Rupees 354 per annum, in the name of the eldest son of deceased, Mahomed Oommur, subject to the confirmation of Government.
