Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 18th January 1866.

No. 294.

Under date the 18th January 1866, No. 149.

Land Revenue.

1. The attention of the Governor in Council has been drawn to Circular Order No. 12, published at page 723 of the Madura Gazette, for the 16th December, and he resolves to call Mr. Levinge's attention to the fact that Section LII., Madras Act II. of 1864, does not apply to arrears of rent due from the tenant of a village Manium to his landlord.

2. The Collector is of course right in prohibiting Curnums from attaching property for arrears of rent on their own authority, but he should refer them to the Rent Act, which came into force on the 1st January.

pared to say that Sect II
of Act does not enable us to recover arrears of rent due by an individual holder, as calling a thing
