Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 20th January 1866.

No. 339. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd August 1865, No. 4,560.

Read again Telegram from the Collector of Ganjam, dated 26th May 1865.

Read also the following letter from the Acting Collector of Ganjam, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chetterpore, 19th June 1865, No. 788 :—

1. I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to sanction the retention of the salt guards for a further period of fifteen days from the 1st proximo.
2. Unseasonable rains have caused considerable hindrance to the manufacture, and the Deputy Collector is anxious to keep it open as long as he sees any chance of salt being produced.
3. I request that the order may be communicated to me by Telegram, as there is no time before the end of the month to receive a reply by post.

1. Resolved that the foregoing papers be submitted to Government, with the Board's recommendation that the temporary increase of salt guards sanctioned in the Order of Government, dated 11th May 1865, No. 982, may be extended for a further period of a month and a half from 1st June 1865. In anticipation of the Government sanction, the Board have already permitted the Collector to retain the temporary guard for the period above-mentioned.

2. The Board would further beg the attention of Government to paragraph 2 of their Order above quoted. They have not yet been furnished with any Order from the Judicial Department, on the question therein referred to.

No. 340. ORDER THEREON, 20th January 1866, No. 172.
