Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd January 1866.

No. 374. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th January 1866, No. 71.

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of the Kistna District, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 13th December 1865, No. 273:—

1. I have the honor to submit, for the orders of the Board of Revenue, the case of D. Sarvaya, who has been appointed as the Head Clerk under the Salt Deputy Collector. He was a Clerk under the same Officer on receipt of fifteen Rupees a month. It appears that when the office of Head Clerk became vacant, the Salt Deputy Collector recommended him for the place, and that on his recommendation, my predecessor appointed him in May last.

2. I have found that this man did not hold any permanent or acting appointment on the 1st January 1859. He has not passed the "General Test" for the service, nor was his employment before that date one of a continued character. The pay of the Head Clerk is thirty Rupees a month. For these reasons I have not passed his pay, as it would be contrary to the rules. The Salt Deputy Collector says that he was not at the time of appointment aware of these objections and breaks in the man's service.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg to forward, with, a list of D. Sarvaya's services, and to solicit the instructions of the Board as to whether I may be allowed to continue paying him the full salary of the post at appointment, pending the result of the next General Test Examination, for which he has sent in his application.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

ABSTRACT.—Statement of services of D. Sarvaya, Head Clerk in the Salt Deputy Collector's Office.

Submitted to Government, with the Board's recommendation that as the man has been doing the duty of Head Clerk since 15th May last, he may be permitted to draw the full pay of the post, subject to the condition of passing the General Test at the next Examination, failing which he will revert to his former post.

No. 375.

ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1866, No. 190.

Miscellaneous.

As D. Sarvaya must have been aware that he was disqualified for the post and ought to have intimated the fact to his superiors, the Government decline to make any exception in his favor. He will therefore revert to his former post, receiving the pay of the higher office up to the date of receipt of this order.

It appears that when the office of Head Clerk became vacant, the Salt Deputy Collector recommended him for the place, and that on his recommendation, my predecessor appointed him in May last.

2. I have found that this man did not hold any present or acting appointment on the 1st January 1859. He did not pass the General Test for the service, nor was his employment before that date of character. The pay of the Head Clerk is thirty Rupees a month. For these reasons, he should not have passed his pay, as it would be contrary to the rules. The Salt Deputy Collector stated that he was not at the time of appointment, aware of these objections and breaks in the service.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg to forward, herewith, a statement of D. Sarvayya's services, and to solicit the instructions of the Board as to whether I may be permitted to continue paying him the full salary of the present appointment, pending the result of the General Test Examination, for which he has sent in his application.
