FORT SAINT GEORGE,
11th July 1866.

No. 116. From the Officiating Superintending Engineer of the 4th Division.

Submits documents from Mr. Hayes, exonerating him from the charges made by Appacooty Pillay, relative to his Chuttrum at Tripetty. } (Here enter 21th July 1866, No. 1,232.)

No. 117. ORDER THEREON, 6th August 1866, No. 2,475.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 16.

1. It appears from these papers that the Collector of North Arcot, on a representation from the Railway Apothecary, requested Mr. Hayes, the Supervisor in charge of No. 2 Range of that District to report, after personal inspection, the measures which he considered necessary for remedying the defective sanitary arrangements which prevailed at the Chuttrum near the Railway Station at Tripetty, and that in compliance with these instructions Mr. Hayes inspected the building in company with the Railway Apothecary and the Sub-Magistrate of Tripetty.

2. These particulars will be communicated to the proprietor of the Chuttrum with reference to his letter of the 9th July 1866. He will observe that Mr. Hayes visited the building on public duty, and the circumstances brought to notice in the report of the Railway Apothecary to the Collector clearly demanded an inspection of the place. Appacooty Pillay has evidently been misinformed of what occurred on the occasion of Mr. Hayes' visit, and the Government are disposed to believe that the other allegations in his letter are as unfounded as the charge of Mr. Hayes' having interfered arbitrarily or unauthorizedly.

3. The state in which the Chuttrum was found by the three Officers who inspected it appears to have been disgraceful in the extreme, and the Collector of North Arcot is requested to inform Government what measures he adopted on the receipt of Mr. Hayes' report to cause the building to be cleansed, and proper sanitary precautions to be enforced within it.

4. The Consulting Engineer for Railways will on his next inspection of the works on the North-West Line report on the condition of the Chuttrum, and the Consulting Physician of the Madras Railway will be requested to visit Chuttrums near Railway Stations during his periodical inspections.
