Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
21st August 1866.

Read the following Telegrams:—

No. 542. From Collector, Berhampore, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season very favorable. Rain-fall abundant, and general prices falling. Markets well supplied. Public health good. Pasture abundant.

No. 543. From Collector, Vizagapatam, to Revenue Secretary to Government, dated 20th August 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall increasing. Prices in towns rising, elsewhere stationary. Bazaar ill-supplied. Public health improving. Pasture sufficient.

No. 544. From Collector, Masulipatam, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season still promising. Rain-fall very deficient, except in Bezwada and Nandegama Talooks, where two inches have fallen. Prices rising in some Talooks, owing to extensive exports to Cuddapah, Bellary, and Hyderabad. Markets tolerably well supplied. Public health generally good. Cholera and small-pox prevail; former still raging in Guntoor. Pasture insufficient in Western Talooks, in Guntoor very deficient.

No. 545. From Collector, Nellore, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season promising. Showers. Prices stationary and excessive. Markets close. Public health good. Pasture improving.

No. 546. From Collector, Cuddapah, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

No more rain. The rest as before.

No. 547. From Collector, Bellary, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Rain-fall none up to date at Bellary; little and partial in the Talooks. Prices risen twelve per cent. since last week's report. Public health bad. Pasture not improved. Prospects at present are very gloomy.

No. 548. From Deputy Collector, Kurnool, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season unpromising. Rain-fall none, except in Nundikutkoor Talook. Prices rising. Markets tolerably supplied. Public health pretty good. Pasture passable.

No. 549. From Collector, Chittoor, through Vellore, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 21st August 1866.

Season most unpromising. Rain-fall occasional; slight drizzling showers, and these very partial; prices rising slightly. Public health bad. Cholera abating in the Wallajapett neighbourhood, but prevalent in southern parts of District. Markets moderately supplied. Pasture and water deficient, but better than it was.

No. 550. From Collector, Cuddalore, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

No change in season, rain-fall, prices, markets, public health, and pasture since last telegram.

No. 551. From Collector, Tanjore, to Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season promising in the Delta. Freshes enough; still unpromising in the uplands. Rain-fall slight and partial. Prices upward tendency. Public health generally good, but virulent cholera in Negapatam and Puttookottah. Pasture increasing. Markets generally well supplied.

No. 552. From Collector, Trichinopoly, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall generally than in last report. Prices high, but stationary. Markets ill-supplied in Ondyarcollum and Paremovalur; other Talooks moderate. Health indifferent in Trichinopoly and Musery; bad in Ondyarcollum and Paremovalur, Kulitlalay. Pasture scarce, as last week.

No. 553. From Collector, Madura, to Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 16th August 1866.

Thirteenth.—Season improving. Rain-fall.—Moderate rain in some few places; none at all over the greater part of the District. Where rain fell the growing Punja crops have revived, and fresh cultivation going on; some tanks gotten or filled by rain; but as the rain holds off they have begun to rise again. Markets not so well supplied as last month. Public health generally good. Pasture failed. Cattle look starved.

No. 554. From Collector, Palamcottah, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Eighteenth twentieth.—Season not promising. Rain fall deficient. Market prices fifth very. Public health good. Pasture failing.

No. 555. From Collector, Coimbatore, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season unpromising. Rain fall more since last report in the eastern parts of the District. Prices have a tendency to rise. Markets fairly supplied. Public health good. Pasture scarce, except in the south-western parts of the District.

No. 556. From Collector, Salem, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season slight improvement in some parts of the District. Rain-fall few showers here and there. Prices high. Markets poorly supplied. Health indifferent. Pasture very scarce.

No. 557. From Collector, Mangalore, to Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season continues favorable. Rain-fall sufficient. Prices high and stationary. Public health generally good. Pasture abundant.

No. 558. From Collector, Calicut, Malabar, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 20th August 1866.

Season good. Rain-fall sufficient. Prices unsteady, rather higher. Markets uncertain. Public health good. Pasture good.

No. 559. ORDER THEREON, 21st August 1866, No. 2,167.
