Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th September 1866.

Read the following Telegrams:—

No. 69. From Collector, Berhampore, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 4th September 1866.

Weekly report.—Third.—Season continues favorable. Rain-fall sufficient. Prices stationary. Market well supplied. Public health good. Pasture abundant.

No. 70. From Collector, Vizagapatam, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 4th September 1866.

Third.—Season promising. Rain-fall increasing. Prices stationary. Market supply steady. Public health improving. Pasture sufficient.

No. 71. From Sub-Collector in charge, Cocanada, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall plentiful. General prices rising. Market well supplied. Public health indifferent. Pasture abundant.

No. 72. From Collector, Masulipatam, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall sufficient. Prices rising owing to continual exports by sea and land. Markets ill-supplied in some Talooks. Rice nine seers per Rupee here. Cholera spreading. Pasturage improving.

No. 73. From Acting Collector, Nellore, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall one and three-quarter inches. Prices rising a little. Market well supplied. Public health good. Pasture improving.

No. 74. From Collector, Cuddapah, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season: much the same. Rain-fall: slight rain in some Talooks. Pasturage very abundant. Public health: cholera too prevelant. The rest as before.

No. 75. From Collector, Bellary, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 4th September 1866.

Rain-fall none in centre, east, and southern Talooks; elsewhere very scanty and partial. Prices very high, with a tendency to rise. Markets very ill-supplied. Public health bad from cholera and distress. Pasture very deficient, in fact no improvement since last week.

No. 76. From Collector, Kurnool, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season much improved. Rain-fall general and sufficient, over three inches registered at Kurnool during the week. Tanks generally well supplied. District healthy. Pasture improving. Prices still very high.

No. 77. From Collector, Gooriattum, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season.—Prospects continue to improve. Occasional showers since heavier fall last reported. Sky cloudy. Growing crops looking well. Those just cut about half an average yield. Ploughing more general under tanks; active in uplands. Half freshes down most of rivers. Prices stationary. Health still bad. Cholera of sporadic type prevalent. Pasture and water tolerably abundant.

No. 78. From Collector, Cuddalore, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season more promising. Rain-fall sufficient for the standing cumboo and other dry crops. Moderate showers, and very general throughout the week. Total rain during week about one inch. Many tanks have two months' supply of water, Prices rising. Markets ill-supplied. Public health on the whole very good; but cholera still hangs about in various places. Pasture sufficient; but cattle are still suffering from disease, and dying in parts of the District.

No. 79. From Collector, Tanjore, to Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season continues promising in the Delta. Better in the uplands. Rain-fall, showers and cloudy weather. Markets no deficiency. Prices weaker at Negapatam owing to imports; the same as before elsewhere. Health improving, except in the Puttoocottah. Pasture more abundant.

No. 80. From Collector, Palamcottah, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

September third.—Season not promising. Rain-fall slight in some villages. Market prices rising. Rice four annas per Madras Measure. Public health good. Pasture deficient.

No. 81. From Collector, Coimbatore, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 4th September 1866.

Season generally unpromising. Rain-fall: there was slight partial rain in all the Talooks except Coimbatore, Pollachy, and Oodamalapettah. Prices generally rising. Market moderately supplied. Public health good. Pasture deficient, except in the south-western parts of the District.

No. 82. From Collector, Salem, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season improving. Rain-fall: pretty good fall in some parts. Prices: slight fall in some places; in others stationary. Markets poorly supplied. Health indifferent. Pasture slight improvement.

No. 83. From Collector, Mangalore, to Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 3rd September 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall sufficient. Prices high, have advanced slightly owing to the coast being open. Market well supplied. Public health good. Pasture abundant.
