No. 78.

Mr. Thacker, Veterinary Surgeon.—Correspondence connected with his Civil employment to be conducted, with the permission of the Commander-in-Chief, without prejudice to his Military duties. Difference of salary to be drawn in Civil Department.

With reference to the order of Govt under date 28th Septr 1868, No 2464. explaining the services of Veterinary Surgeon Thacker temporarily at the dis-posal of the Military authorities, the Govt

officer, with the permis-correspondence connect-without prejudice to his Military duties.

I doubt the propriety of this. We have heard of late little or nothing of Mr Thacker, who seems to have been enjoying the advantages of a roving commission, duck, &c., has turned up at Coonoor.
The retention of Mr Thacker in a quasi Civil office, can affect his services are no longer necessary at Bangalore, appears to me be permitted to draw in the Civil Department the difference, if any,

drawn by him while in Civil employ.

I see no necessity for opening the notes
proposed by the Acting Revenue Secretary.
At all events I am aware of none & if there is any it should

is a memorandum accompanying the despatch. The question of the Bankers

Servants as distinct to be here taken cognizance and to consideration shows the
C. in Chief no longer approves his services at Bangalore.

The subject may well be reconsidered when Mr. Thackeray is no longer

Papers put up.

I must express my regret that in the hurry of circulating the draft order overleaf I omitted to put up a memo of the nature indicated by Mr.
Cuthbert. I circulated the order because I was informed that on a former occasion the course proposed was followed, and because after the numerous orders which have been issued directing Tahsildars to apply at once direct to Mr. Thacker when cattle disease breaks out, it seemed a pity suddenly to discontinue his correspondence which could easily be carried on at Bangalore. I believe the Board of Revenue are satisfied with the means

Such steps attended Mr Thackers efforts to check disease and I learn from Mr. Mangon that a report from him is now under consideration. The results of the experiment are necessarily slow in coming, but I believe there are results. Govt. expressed their satisfaction with Mr. Thackers progress when reviewing his last report, also put up.

I have passed the days. I was not aware that a similar course to what now proposed had been sanctioned as a precedent on occasions and as it might be convenient that Mr Thackeray should proceed with the Chamberlain Party, as the Normal Training Class, as early at Bangalore as circumstances would admit of, I think that the proposed order should be passed. Should the ability of any other officer render it inexpedient with the opinion expressed in the order of Govt. of the 12th Nov. 1867. then as soon the report was before the Board of Revenue as circumstances should allow, they can make the necessary arrangements

Mr Thackeray's services on the Civil Commission could without prejudice to the Public duty be dispensed with.

The special duty on which Mr Thacker was employed after returning of by, when on his civil special duty, was an affair of 3, or perhaps, 4 days. He is now taking the place of a sick Lady-surgeon who will probably have to be sent on to St. Cecile. He had hospital Mat-ress last being wanted at Bangalore, he might have been ordered to proceed to Ramdroog or Kummdwabad. In either case correspondence with our Mass. must have ceased. He must be continued, instead of allowing things to revert to their state existing before the special call for his services in aid of our expedition, a bad headache, was made, Mr Veby Surgeon Pritchard might, as on his spot here, be ordered to keep up the correspondence. Lakshmund is rather important, on the whole however I may see as well to let Mr Thacker do the work. I am anxious to have the Report
