1	Dindigul Talook. Amatray Polliem. Ready money allowance. Rs. 499-0-1 per annum.	It is said that, by an order of the Collector dated 18th April 1818, the allowance was granted by the British Government to Rengia Makala Naik. The date of Government sanction should be ascertained from the Collector's records. ——— The date of Government sanction is the 5th January 1821.	In lieu of resumed Polliem.	Bommia Makala Naik died on the 24th March 1866. He was the nephew and adopted son of the original grantee.	The whole allowance was enjoyed by the deceased.	Years. Rengasawmy Makala Naik, son, age ... ... 30 Kaderammal, his wife, age 25 A minor son of the above, bearing no name ... ... 2 Moodookristnamah Naik, another son of the deceased... 26 Kamammal, his wife ... 23 Kattammal, daughter ... 7 Moottakammal, do. ... 3 A male child having no name 1 Mootammal, widow of the original grantee ... ... 62 Veerakammal, widow of the deceased ... ... 50 Kamammal, daughter of the deceased ... ... 17 Letchammal do. ... 15 Possess Puttah lands taxed at 230 Rupees.	There is no record in the Sub-Collector's office to shew the past history of this Polliem. It is understood that it can be learnt from the Collector's records. The allowance, otherwise called Malikana, having been granted in lieu of the Polliem surrendered to Government by its owner, and it having been declared hereditary by the Government Order 6th February 1858, it is recommended that the allowance may be continued in the name of the first son of the deceased, from the date of the latter's death.
