Sir.

In consequence of the large number of Assistants who of late have passed out of College and been employed in the several Collectorates, and for whom no provision was made when the Establishments were revised, it has become necessary to employ generally two peons for each extra Assistant (beyond the usual complement of one Assistant to a District) these peons have been charged to the temporary Establishments. But as this temporary charge will in fact become a permanent charge, I am of opinion that it will be better to allow two peons, on 7 Rs per month, to be attached to the permanent

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
12th October 1866.

No. 313. Read the following letter from the Honorable C. PELLY, Member of the Board of Revenue, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 18th August 1866, No. 1,969:—

1. In consequence of the large number of Assistants who of late have passed out of College and been employed in the several Collectorates, and for whom no provision was made when the establishments were revised, it has become necessary to employ generally two Peons for each extra Assistant (beyond the usual complement of one Assistant to a District). These Peons have been charged to the temporary establishments. But as this temporary charge will in fact become a permanent charge, I am of opinion that it will be better to allow two Peons, on 7 Rupees per month, to be attached to the permanent strength of each Collectorate to be available for the additional number of Assistant Collectors.

2. This permanent addition to the number of office servants will obviate the necessity of repeated applications for temporary Peons. In some Districts more than two Assistants are occasionally appointed, but the number fluctuates; but whatever number may be appointed, the Collectors will have to arrange for providing the Assistants with one or two Peons out of the permanent strength with the addition now proposed. Judging from the prospects of the service, it seems probable that for some time the average complement of Assistants will not be less than two to each District, besides the Head Assistant. The revised establishments contemplated one only.

3. The total number of Peons that will be required is thirty-eight, at a monthly cost of Rupees 266, and if the Government are pleased to sanction the same, I shall include them in my General Statement of Establishments. If not, the present plan of employing extra Peons for the Assistant Collectors will have to be maintained.

No. 314. ORDER THEREON, 12th October 1866, No. 2,768.

Miscellaneous.

The Government consider the present plan preferable on the whole.
