No. 373. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of South Canara, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Mangalore, 10th October 1866, No. 44.

From Government, Judicial Department, 11th June 1866, No. 916.
To Government, 18th June 1866, No. 21.

With reference to the correspondence marginally noted, I have now the honor to report, for the information of Government, that the Magisterial work has, of late, so much increased in this office, that, with the busy time of the year now commencing, I feel myself compelled to apply for further Magisterial assistance.

2. The result of the Assistants' Examination, held on the 22nd and 23rd August, must, I presume, very shortly be made known, and, in anticipation of Mr. Galton's having passed the 2nd Standard (and which, so far as the opinion of the Local Committee is concerned, we have every reason to expect), I would beg respectfully to request that that gentleman may be invested with the full powers of a Magistrate. In making this recommendation, I have the fullest confidence that Mr. Galton will exercise these powers with care and discrimination.

3. With reference to paragraph 5 of the letter of the Registrar to the High Court, recorded in the Order of Government above alluded to, regarding the reduction of the Office Establishment of the Principal Sudder Ameen, I would also take leave to suggest that, in consideration of the additional Magisterial work now thrown on this office, one Criminal Javabnevis at least should be transferred from the office of the Principal Sudder Ameen. As the Government are aware, the present scale of Establishments of this office was intended to provide for one Assistant, but not for three, as is the case now; and, if my present recommendation is acceded to, and Mr. Galton is invested with full Magisterial powers, it is indispensably necessary that he should have some Ministerial servant of experience and ability for the purpose of preparing Calendars, Processes, &c. I trust, therefore, the Government will be pleased to accede to this recommendation, and direct the transfer of the Criminal Javabnevis of the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court to this office.
