Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
29th November 1866.

No. 712. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th November 1866, No. 8,324.

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Camp at Katpadi, in the Talook of Gudiattam, 30th October 1866, No. 321½ :—

1. I have the honor to request the permission of the Board to appoint Ramiengar, Inspector of Police and Public Prosecutor at this station, to the Tahsildarship now vacant by the retirement, on pension, of the late incumbent Nat Babu Row. I enclose, for the Board's perusal, a copy of Ramiengar's testimonials, which will speak for themselves.

2. I have formed a very high opinion of Ramiengar's qualifications and character, and in this, all who are acquainted with his official career, most unanimously concur. In commending Ramiengar's application to the acceptance of the Board, I feel sure that, in conferring the appointment on him, they will have exercised their patronage on behalf of a highly, intelligent, conscientious, and industrious officer, and in the manner most conducive to the interests of the talook. The Police Department lose one of their best Officers in the arrangement, but it will bring on the Revenue staff one, whose antecedents justify the anticipation, that he will distinguish himself equally in the new branch of the service which he now seeks to enter.

3. Ramiengar is just the stamp of man required in the particular post for which I now recommend him. His training in the Police and the Courts, combined with excellent natural abilities, and independence of character, are the very qualification wanted in a talook like that of Chittoor, where the Magisterial work is frequently heavy, and Revenue litigation is intricate and corrupt.

4. Ramiengar is thirty-five years of age, active in body as in mind. He went up lately for the Criminal Higher Grade Test, and I have small doubt, will be found on the list (when published) of those who passed it successfully. If appointed, subject to the usual conditions of passing the prescribed Revenue Tests, Ramiengar is desirous that he should be permitted to go up, at once, for the higher of these two tests at the second yearly examination which may come off reckoned from the date of his appointment.

5. From what I know of Ramiengar's industry and high sense of duty, his wishes may, I think, be acceded to. If the Board will refer to the Proceedings of the Government, Judicial Department, dated 1st September 1866, No. 1,369, paragraph 15, they will find that Government point to the desirableness of disconnecting the Police from criminal prosecution in the Courts. The enunciation of these views has, doubtless, had considerable influence in determining Ramiengar to make the large pecuniary sacrifice which his exchange into the Revenue Department (if permitted) will involve.

6. In anticipation that Ramiengar's application will be favorably received by the Board, I have, in personal conference with the Session Judge and Superintendent of Police, made arrangements for filling up the post of Public Prosecutor on the principles indicated in the Proceedings just quoted.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
29th November 1866.

7. Ramiengar has, to the Board's will observe, [illegible] as mentioned in the Board's Circular, dated 3rd August, No. XXVI., Board's Proceedings.

P. S.—A list of Ramiengar's services will be forwarded in a day or two.
