Read the following Telegrams:—

No. 174. From Deputy Collector, Vizagapatam, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Tenth.—Season promising. Rain-fall sufficient. Prices falling. Market well supplied. Public health good. Pasture plentiful.

No. 175. From Collector, Godavery, Cocanada, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Season report same as last. Prospects very good. Are further weekly telegrams required ?

No. 176. From Collector, Kistna, Masulipatam, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Season good. Slight fall of rain in last week. Prices rather falling. Markets pretty well supplied. Fever prevails in jungle talooks. Pasturage sufficient. Crops good, with exception of cholum, which is below average.

No. 177. From Collector, Nellore, to Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall abundant. Prices stationary. Markets well supplied. Public health good. Pasture sufficient.

No. 178. From Collector, Cuddapah, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Season continues very encouraging. Wet crops are all in good condition. The dry crops in the five talooks have been injured by blight. The extent is not known, Pulivendla, Cuddapah, Poodootoor, Sidhout, Voilpaud. Rain-fall—Cuddapah three inches two-tenths; Pulivendla two inches; Jammalamadgu two-tenths; Poodootoor one inch seven and a half tenths; Sidhout four, nine; Pullampett five, one; Royachoty three, two; Voilpaud four, three; Madanapully four, five; Pasturage most abundant. Public health—fever very prevalent. I continue to feed from 400 to 500 poor from private funds. Prices are the same as before.

No. 179. From Collector, Kurnool, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 6th December 1866.

Season.—Slight showers have occurred in five talooks during past week. Prices somewhat fallen in Cumbum and Ramalakota Talooks; stationary in the others. Market same as before. Health—one or two cases of cholera in CumbumTalook; fever as general as before; hundred and nine deaths reported for the last week in Kurnool town, chiefly fever cases. Pasture sufficient.

No. 180. From the Acting Collector of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Saidapet, 10th December 1866, No. 251.

1. I have the honor to submit my report of the season for the past week.

2. The Tahsildars state at last that their talooks have been visited by sufficient rain, as one of them puts it, "to the hearts content of the agricultural population." All the tanks in the district seem to have received a full supply of water.

3. There has been no alteration in prices since the date of my last report.

4. The dis trict is free from sickness.

No. 181. From Collector, North Arcot, Chittoor, through Vellore, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 11th December 1866.

Season continues favorable. Rain-fall very heavy during the week. Prices as in last week. Markets well supplied. Public health not so good; cholera in several parts of Chendragherry, Chittoor, Gudiatum, Vellore, and Pooloor Talooks. Fever in the last-mentioned four talooks, and in the Palamanair Talook. Small-pox in the Gudiattum Talook. Pasture abundant.

No. 182. From Collector, South Arcot, Pondicherry, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 11th December 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall abundant. Prices stationary. Market better supplied. Public health good. Pasture sufficient.

No. 183. From Collector, Tanjore, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Season Report for the week ending 8th December.—Rain-fall general, and nearly sufficient. Prices stationary, but excessive. Markets well supplied. Public health good. Pasture sufficient.

No. 184. From Collector, Trichinopoly, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall universally abundant. Prices again weaker. Market supplied abundantly. Health generally good. Pasture ample.

No. 185. From Collector, Madura, through Paumben, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Third December.—Season unpromising up to date. Rain-fall none since last report till the second, this day sky overcast, light rain falling; but it must come down heavier, and continue for some days to save the wet crops. Prices—old rice high; imported rice (four F. and M. M. M. two) measures the Rupee. Markets well supplied. Public health generally good. Pasturage good.

No. 186. From Collector, Tinnevelly, Palamcottah, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 11th December 1866.

Tenth December.—Season promising. Rain-fall considerable. Markets well supplied. Prices rising. Public health good. Pasture sufficient.

No. 187. From Collector, Coimbatore, to Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 11th December 1866.

Season promising. Rain-fall good and general. Prices falling slightly. Markets moderately well supplied. Public health indifferent. Fever and cholera prevail. Pasture good.

No. 188. From Collector, Salem, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 10th December 1866.

Season good. Rain-fall—pretty good fall in some places. Prices—slight fall. Markets moderately supplied. Health bad, cholera in several places. Pasture plentiful.
