PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 15th November 1866.

Read the following letter from G. S. FORBES, Esq., Collector of Ganjam, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chetterpore, 3rd November 1866, No. 2,992 :—

1. I have the honor, under the Board's Standing Circular Order of the 31st March 1864, No. XXVII., to request the Board's sanction to an estimate of 8,461 rupees for the branch road from Trunk Road No. 6, to the port of Barwah.

2. This work was entered in the Local Funds Budget, and estimated at Rupees 1,900 ; an accurate estimate has since been made by Captain Darrah, shewing that the work requires an amount for which the Board's special sanction is needed. Upwards of 2,000 are available for a commencement, and the work is one of the most important and desirable among our local projects.

The Collector must forward the detailed estimate for submission to Government.
