1	Degavur in Voilpau Talook. An annual pension of Rupees 52-8-0, or Rupees 4-6-0, per ensem, entered in No. 91 of Mr. Ross's Register, Statement X.	Granted by Colonel Munro, to the original grantee, Timma Naidoo, on the 12th July 1801, and renewed under sanc- tion of Government, dated 23rd November 1830. No Sunnuds, &c., are forthcoming.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices, privileges, &c.	Mallammah, the last holder of the allowance, died on the 3rd April 1865. She was second widow of the original grantee, Timma Naidoo.	The whole allowance was enjoyed by the de- ceased.	1 Chinna Chengama Naidoo, son of the deceased, aged forty years. 1 Mallammah, first wife of do., aged thirty years. 1 Yerrammah, widow, of the elder son of do., aged eighteen years. 1 Chengama Naidoo, grandson of do., aged four years. 1 Ackammah, daugh- ter of do., aged eigh- teen years. 1 Condamma, do. of do., aged fifteen years. 1 Balamma, do. of do., aged thirteen years. 1 Mallammah, do. of do., aged eight years. 1 Tirmala Naidoo, se- cond son of Chinna Chengama Naidoo, aged eleven years. 1 Balamma, second wife of do., aged thirty years. 1 Chengama Naidoo, first son of do., aged fifteen years. 1 Venkatappa Naidoo, second son of do., aged fourteen years. 1 Tirumalamma, daugh- ter of do., aged twelve years. 1 Venkatamma, do. of do., aged eight years.	An annual allowance of Rupees 105 was granted by Colonel Munro to the original grantee, Timma Naidoo. On his death the allow- ance was continued to Mallammah, his second widow; the date of the Order of Government cannot be ascertained from the records of this office. Some disputes arose be- tween her and one Venkatappa Naidoo, son of the first wife of the Poligar, and the case was reported by Mr. Dalrymple in his Statement of several cases submitted to the Board, recommending that the al- lowance be divided between the said Mallammah and Venkatappa Naidoo with arrears then in deposit. The Board in their last remarks on the case, under date the 8th No- vember 1830, supported the above recommendation, and the Govern- ment have sanctioned it accord- ingly under date the 23rd Novem- ber 1830. It would appear from the re- marks of Mr. Dalrymple in his State- ment above mentioned that Mal- lammah, whose death is now under report, had been pregnant at the time of her husband's death, and subsequently got a son named Chinna Chengal Naidoo. This individual is now aged forty years, and claims the continuance to him of the allowance held by his de- ceased mother, together with arrears due to her. Under the authority conveyed in the Board's Standing Circular, dated 3rd September 1861, No. 4,762, I consider that I am justi- fied in continuing the allowance to the said Chinna Chengama Naidoo from the 4th April 1865, with ar- rears due to the deceased from 1st Feb. to 3rd April 1865, and I beg that the Board of Revenue will sub- mit the case for the confirmation of Government. The Sub-Collector, who has been called upon, on the 17th November 1865, to report on the delay of more than seven months which has occurred in reporting this case to this office, informs me now that it is attributable to the negligence of the Tahsildar of Voilpau Talook, who has since retired, as per Board's Orders.
