Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th February 1866.

No. 272. Read the following letter from the Government Pleader, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 29th January 1866, No. 17 :—

I have the honor to enclose, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, copy of a letter received by me from N. Govindah Chariar and A. Rajagopala Chariar, under date the 27th instant.

From N. GOVINDAH CHARIAR and A. RAJAGOPALA CHARIAR, to the Government Pleader, dated Madras, 27th January 1866.

1. We the undersigned do hereby beg to address that you are searching some Sanscrit Pundits, who could afford provisions of authority to support the cause of Government in defending the adoption suit of Ramnad Zemindary widow.

2. We are acquainted well with the authorities of Sanscrit authors of Hindu Law. Should you require our services we will be glad to engage in undertaking the business on an ample salary for our maintenance during the time we may be occupied in tracing out from authors of the required provisions, that is, from the College library; and when the Government are gained the suit in their favor in the Privy Council at England, we request you will be pleased to recommend for a permanent grant of some pecuniary pension or lands for our maintenance in token of a reward of the Government. As we are not acquainted the English language, we request you will kindly allow us your Goomashta to attend on us in College library, to reduce in writing the notes we then and there trace from the authors.

3. A copy of the printed case wherein the alleged authorities of Sanscrit already quoted may be left with us for reference.

4. Wishing you will kindly take into consideration and do the needful as it being in behalf of Government.

No. 273.
