THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

SIR,

Miscellaneous.

1. I am directed to submit the following case for the favorable consideration of the Government of India.
2. Kondul Row, ex-Tahsildar of Sheally in the Tanjore District, has been in the service of Government for upwards of thirty years, twenty-eight of which have been passed in grades qualifying for pension. As a Tahsildar he was guilty of grave faults and irregularities, which in the end led to his dismissal; but he maintained to the last a good reputation for honesty, and when he left the service he was, in the words of the present Collector Mr. Morris, still a poor man.
3. The case came before Government in 1864, when Mr. Cadell, who was then the Collector, reported that Kondul Row was unfit to be a Tahsildar. The Board did not agree with the Collector, and declined to sanction Kondul Row's dismissal; but the Government being referred to by the Board were of opinion that the Collector had made out his case, and Kondul Row was accordingly removed from office.
4. The charges which were proved against Kondul Row involved no moral delinquency, and although the Government were at first of opinion that he had no claim to a pension, they came to the conclusion after careful deliberation that it would be a punishment more severe than had been deserved, and a precedent injurious to the best interests of the State, if a man of Kondul Row's character and standing were turned adrift after so long a service without the means of subsistence.
5. If Kondul Row had retired on a Medical Certificate he would have been entitled to a pension of Rupees 66 per mensem; and the Government are of opinion, that under the circumstances a reduced pension of Rupees 40 per mensem is the least that should be granted to him.
6. An Order to this effect was indeed passed in the belief that Kondul Row's service in pension grades had lasted for more than thirty years, but as the report of the Examiner of Claims shews that this is not the case, the Order has been held in abeyance pending the result of this reference.
7. I am accordingly directed to request that the Government of India will permit a pension of Rupees 40 per mensem to be paid to Kondul Row, from the date of his retirement.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) J. D. SIM,

Secretary to Government.

How for honesty, etc.

The Secretary to the Govt of India,

Sir,

I am directed to submit the following case
for the favorable consideration of the Govt of India-

Kondal Row, Sec-Tahsildar of Sheally in the

was remarkable in the corrupt district where he was employed, and when he left the service he was in the words of the present Collector Mr. Morris still a poor man.

The case came before Govt in 1864 when Mr. Cadell who was then the Collector reported that Kondal Row was unfit to be a Sahildar. The Board did not agree with the Collector, and declined to sanction Kondal Row's dismissal, but the Govt being referred to by the Board were of opinion that the Collector had made out his case and Kondal Row was accordingly removed from office.

The charges which were proved against Kondal Row involved no moral delinquency, and although the

the Govt were at first of opinion that he had no claim to a pension, they came to the conclusion after careful deliberation that it would be a punishment more severe than had been deserved, and a precedent injurious to the best interests of the state if a man of Kondal Row's character and standing were turned ^{adrift} after so long a service without the means of subsistence.

If Kondal Row had retired on a medical certificate he would have been entitled to a pension of Rupees 66 per mensem, and the Govt are of opinion that under the circumstances a reduced pension of Rupees 40 per mensem is the least that should be granted to him.
