It has been proved before the Tahsildar of Vellore, who's final report reached this office in October last, that the deceased left heirs as per column 7; that the registry of the allowance in the name of the deceased's eldest son, named Khadar Khan, by his married wife, has been acceded to by the sons of his Nika wife; and that the required services are being efficiently performed by him ever since the demise of his father. The Durgah is reported to be in good order. The Collector, therefore, solicits sanction for the continuance of the allowance to Khadar Khan, whose name has been registered in this office, and for the • From fourth list of payment to him of the Fusly 1274, to second list of arrears due, amounting to Rupees 115-2-0. Provision exists in the Budget to meet this charge.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th March 1866.

1. The Board approve the registry of the annual allowance, amounting to Rupees 153½, in the name of Khadar Khan, the eldest son of the deceased, and resolve to submit these Proceedings for the confirmation of Government.

2. Before sanctioning the arrears, the Board request that the Collector will state the day, month, and year from which they are due. The expression "from fourth kist of Fusly 1274," is out of place in a statement of the kind under disposal.
