ary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, as, 7th March 1866 :—

onor to forward copy of a plaint brought by M. Narsimha h Court at Madras against myself, on account of injuries instituting the enquiry into his conduct, which resulted in his ernment.

a Puntulu has valued the damages thus caused to him at copy of the plaint to-day, and the case comes on for hearing nt. As my leave expires on that date, I have empowered e firm of Messrs. Boyson and Brockman, to appear in my behalf, nce being useless at this stage of the proceedings.

t a resident within the local limits of Madras, I am unaware I within the jurisdiction of the High Court on the original side. en from the plaint, that the whole proceedings which constitute resent action are my official acts as Collector of Kurnool, connto the alleged misconduct of the plaintiff, then a servant of my subordinate.

e not responsible for the alleged statements of Komaraswamy au, and other persons, with most of which irrelevant matter eedings in the conduct of the enquiry, which was forced o the Government, and have met with their approval. I trust, ill be pleased to sanction the defence of this case by their Law orize the production of such papers connected with it as may
