Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th May 1870.

No. 34. Read the following Circular from the Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, (Separate Revenue—Assessed Taxes,) to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 14th April 1870, No. 2,425 :—

REFERRING to the Circular issued from this department, No. 1,911, dated 31st March 1869, the Governor-General in Council wishes again to invite the attention of all local Governments and Administrations to the extreme importance of an efficient assessment and collection of the Income-tax imposed by Act XIX. of 1870.

2. The Act gives to the Administration facilities which it has not recently possessed for securing the full revenue of the State.

3. The possibility of the early reduction of the tax from its present high rate may be promoted in no inconsiderable degree, if by the exertion of the officers of the Revenue Department the productiveness of the tax should be developed to its full capacity.

No. 35. ORDER THEREON, 4th May 1870, No. 636.

Miscellaneous.

COMMUNICATED to the Collectors, through the Board of Revenue, for their information and guidance. The Circular of the Government of India, dated 31st March 1869, No. 1,911, will be found recorded in the Proceedings of Government, dated 1st May 1869, No. 1,189.
