Under orders of the Govt of India cleared in Madras Revenue order No 427 dated 19th February 1869, the system of passing any goods through the Custom House free of duty has ceased unless the goods are actually the property of Govt. In other cases the duty must be paid in the first instance, & a bill for the amount submitted for sanction in the proper Department, which, if passed, will be equivalent to a refund of the duty to the Department concerned -

of Customs has adopted the latter course, and submits the bill for Rs 419-1-7 (being duty on the Police clothing) for sanction in the Judicial Dept.

The proper course in the present case would seem to be for the charge to be sanctioned in the Judicial Dept and the charge will then appear as a debit against the Police budget.

The undersigned is not aware whether the clothing of the Police is paid for by the men, but if not, the clothing would be Govt property, & no duty should therefore have been levied.

Orders are circulated on the case.
