Proceedings of the Madras Government, Political Department, 6th March 1866.

Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, to the Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Fort William, 7th February 1866, Circular No. 106A.

Foreign Department.
Political.

With reference to the Circular from this office, No. 1099, dated the 7th September 1864, I am directed to forward, for your information and guidance, the accompanying four printed copies of a letter, No. 106, of this date, to the address of the Agent to the Governor General for Central India.

From the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Agent to the Governor General for Central India; dated Fort William, 7th February 1866, No. 106.

Foreign Department.
Political.

With reference to the correspondence terminating with your letters noted in the margin, I am directed to inform you that the Governor General in Council concurs with you in opinion that the Chief of Basowda is a feudatory of the Gwalior State, and that consequently Basowda is not entitled to a place among the Chiefships immediately dependent on the British Government, shown at page 512, Volume IV. of Aitchison's Treaties.

2. The following foot-note had been added in the Foreign office copy of the volume in question, and you are requested to cause a similar correction to be made in all copies which may have been officially supplied to the various Agencies in Central India :—

Baroda.—This Chiefship has been ~~simultaneously~~ entered among the Chiefships immediately dependent on the British Government. Its real position is that of a feudatory of Sindia, paying no tribute. Nevertheless, the Chief receives the countenance and support of the Political Agent for Bhopal, within whose local jurisdiction the estate lies, and who, since 1822, has exercised the same general authority in the affairs of this Chiefship as in those of the guaranteed petty Chiefs subject to his control."

ORDER THEREON, 6th March 1866, No. 53.

[illegible]

Ordered accordingly, that Mr. Muir's communication referred to in the above letter be communicated to the officers named in the margin, to whom copies of Volume IV of Aitchison's Treaties have been distributed, for entry,
