Share enjoyed by the deceased and that held by the other members.	Family left by the deceased, and name and age of the parties, their circumstances, and the means of subsistence possessed by the family.	Remarks.
1	Mallela in Voilpad Talook, Rupees 2,625 per annum, or Rupees 218-12-0 per mensem, entered in No. 76 of Mr. Ross's Register, Statement X.	Granted by Colonel Munro, on the 12th July 1801, to Venkata Cadripati Naidoo, the original grantee, and renewed in the name of the last incumbent Venkata Cadereppa Naidoo, under sanction of Government, dated 15th June 1861, No. 1,034, communicated in the Board's Proceedings of the 18th of the same month, No. 3,757. No Sunnuds, &c., are forthcoming.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices, and privileges, &c.	Venkata Cadereppa Naidoo, the last holder of the allowance, died on the 18th August 1865. He was grandson of the original grantee.	The whole allowance was enjoyed by the deceased.	1 Candammah, elder widow of the deceased, aged 22 years. 1 Chinna Candammah, 2nd widow of the deceased, aged 18 years. 1 Venkata Vasanta Naidoo, younger brother of the deceased, aged 27 years. 1 Yerrammah, mother of Venkata Naidoo, or 2nd widow of Venkata Naidoo, father of the deceased, aged 42 years. 1 Malammah, 1st wife of Venkata Naidoo, aged 22 years. 1 Yerrammah, 2nd wife of do., aged 18 years. 6	On the death of the original grantee, Venkata Cadripati Naidoo, the allowance was continued to his son Venkatappa Naidoo, under Orders of Government, dated 17th June 1842, No. 753, conveyed in the Board's Proceedings of the 4th July 1842. This individual having died on the 31st December 1863, the allowance was renewed in the name of Venkata Cadereppa Naidoo, son by his elder wife, (last incumbent,) under Orders of Government, dated 15th June 1861, No. 1,034, communicated in the Board's Proceedings of the 18th of the same month. The deceased left no issue, but his two widows, who, and all the several members of the family, live together depending on the allowance. The Sub-Collector reports that the widows of the deceased and all the members of the family request that the allowance might be continued to Venkata Vasanta Naidoo, the younger brother of the deceased, (the son of his deceased father by his 2nd wife, and also the grandson of the original grantee); but recommends that the allowance should be continued to the widows of the deceased during their lives. This proposal is against their wish, and of that of the whole of the family, who are solely dependant on the allowance. As the allowance was continued to Venkata Cadereppa Naidoo, the holder, as the legal representative in the male line, and as he has left no male issue, I consider it right that it should be continued to Venkata Vasanta Naidoo, his younger brother, (the son of Venkatappa Naidoo, father of the deceased by his 2nd wife,) who has equal right with the deceased to inherit the allowance which was granted by the Government for the support of the whole family, and not for the benefit of the individual to whom it was granted, and I therefore, under the authority conveyed in the Board's Standing Circular, dated 3rd September 1861, No. 4,762, continued the allowance, Rupees 2,625 per annum, to Venkata Vasanta Naidoo from 19th August 1865, with arrears due to the deceased from 1st to 18th of the same month, subject to the approval of the Board and confirmation of Government. The Sub-Collector states that the delay in submitting the report to this office is attributable to the absence of the parties from various causes. I shall strictly enforce the Orders of the Government, dated 15th December 1865, No. 3,032, communicated in the Board's Standing Circular, dated 22nd December 1865, No. XCV., Board No. 8,320 in the disposal of these cases.

to the confirmation of Government, and under the authority conveyed in their Orders, dated 27th August 1861, No. 1,719, the Board approve the Collector's proceedings in the pension of Rupees 2,625 per annum in the name of Venkata Vasanta Naidoo, the brother and legal male representative of the last holder.

2. The Board also sanction the payment of arrears from 1st to 18th August 1865.
