No. 143. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th March 1866, No. 2,174.

Read the following letter from the Collector of the Kistna District, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Gudivadah, 13th March 1866, No. 82 :—

1. In forwarding herewith copy of a letter, No. 66, dated 13th ultimo, from the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, from which the Board will perceive that Rajanala Nagabhushanam Naidu, Tahsildar of Gudivada Talook, was not considered eligible for the Modified Special Test Examination, on the ground that he had only seven years' service entitling him to pension, I have the honor to report that the total period of Nagabhushanam Naidu's service up to 1st January 1866 is twenty years. His pay from the commencement of his service up to the end of 1858, however was only Rupees 10 per mensem as Gumashta in the Sea Custom Department. Hence, his service eligible for pension is only seven years.

2. On reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, the Board will be reminded that Nagabhushanam Naidu's appointment as Tahsildar, was sanctioned by the Government as a special case. He now performs his work efficiently and well; and he has already acquired considerable knowledge of Revenue matters, and of the people of his Talook, by whom he is looked up to as an upright and just public servant.

From Board, 31st August 1865, No. 5,321.
To Board, 25th November 1864, „ 249.
From Board to Government, 9th December 1864, No. 7,902.
Proceedings of Government, 22nd December 1864, No. 2,302.
From Board, 5th January 1865.

3. Under the foregoing circumstances, I beg that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Government, as a special case, to allow Nagabhushanam Naidu to appear at the Modified Test Examination to be held in the month of August 1866.

From the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Collector of the Kistna District, dated 13th February 1866, No. 66.

In reply to your letter of the 6th January 1866, No. 23, and with reference to your list of candidates for the Modified Special Test Examination, I am directed to inform you that No. 1, Rajanala Nagabhushanam Naidu cannot be admitted, as he has only seven years' service in the Revenue Department instead of at least ten years, and as the Order of Government, to which you allude as authority, makes no reference whatever to his admission to the Modified Test, but only to the Special Test, the Modified Test not having been instituted until five months before (? after) the date of the order.
