1	Chintakuntabanda, in Royachoti Taluk. An annual allowance of Rupees 767-9-10, or monthly allowance of Rupees 63-15-6, entered in Mr. Ross's Register, No. 103, Statement X.	Granted by Colonel Munro to the original grantee, Narasimha Naidoo, under date the 12th July 1801, and last renewed in the name of the last incumbent, Ramabhadrapa Naidoo, under Orders of Government, dated 23rd September 1862, No. 2,065, communicated in the Board's Proceedings, dated the 25th of the same month, No. 6,462.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices, and privileges.	Ramachadrappa Naidoo, the last holder of the allowance, died on the 20th August 1865. He was elder son of the original grantee by his second wife.	Per mensem. RS. A. P. Share enjoyed by the deceased... 19 13 0 Do. by Nagamma... 4 0 0 Do. by Senkaramma... 4 0 0 27 13 0 Share held by several other members of the family... 36 2 6 Total... 63 15 6	1 Sithammah, widow of the deceased, aged 23 years. 1 Kaderamma, daughter of do, aged 5 years. 1 Muddu Mallappah Naidoo, younger brother of the deceased, aged 20 years. 1 Venkata Mallappah Naidoo, second younger brother of the deceased, aged 18 years. 1 Cannemma, mother of the deceased, aged 42 years.	This is an allowance originally granted to the grantee Narasimha Naidoo. On his death, it was continued to his son Narasimha Naidoo, under Orders of Government, dated 19th September 1848, No. 1,023. This individual also having died on the 8th December 1861 the grant was renewed in the name of the last incumbent, Ramabhadrapa Naidoo, under Orders of Government, dated 23rd September 1862, No. 2,065. The deceased has left no male issue, but a daughter of five years' old, and a widow. He has also two younger brothers. The widow of the deceased is anxious of continuing the allowance to Muddu Mallappah Naidoo, the first younger brother of her deceased husband, on the ground that he is the legal heir and representative in the male line to succeed to the grant, which is intended for the support of the several members of the family; whereas the Sub-Collector recommends its continuation to her exclusively. Muddu Mallappah Naidoo, who also claims the continuance of the allowance to him, seems to me to be the rightful claimant to succeed to the pension as being the second son of the original grantee by his second wife, and I have ordered the allowance to be registered in his name from 21st August 1865, and to pay to him the arrears due to the deceased from 1st July to 20th August 1865, subject to the approval of the Board and confirmation of Government. The Sub-Collector reports that the delay of six months which occurred in submitting the Report to this office has arisen by the difficulty which the Tahsildar has experienced in getting before him the attendance of the several members of the family, and the further information, which was necessary for the Sub-Collector to obtain, from the Tahsildar on certain points to complete his Report. I have again requested the Sub-Collector to take the necessary precautions to avoid similar delays in the disposal of these cases hereafter.

Submitted for the confirmation of Government. The Board approve the Collector's decision in the case.
