No. 367. ORDER THEREON, 23rd April 1866, No. 957.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government resolve to grant Mr. Thacker a special monthly allowance of Rupees 400 in addition to his Military* pay and allowances and his actual travelling expences, while engaged in his present duty of investigating the Cattle diseases of this Presidency, and experimenting on the best preventive and remedial measures for them.

* Rupees 389-10-9.

2. The Board of Revenue will instruct the Collectors to give Mr. Thacker immediate and precise information of out-breaks of disease in their Districts, and especially to state as accurately as they can, the degree in which the disease prevails and its general character, so that Mr. Thacker may be able to determine with reasonable success when and where his presence is most needed.

3. Mr. Thacker will exercise his discretion in trying such of the remedies suggested in England as may commend themselves to his professional judgment and experience, and will submit a monthly or quarterly report of his proceedings.

4. Mr. Thacker will be remunerated for his services during the last month on the scale above laid down.

5. Ordered that a copy of these Proceedings be submitted to the Secretary of State and Supreme Government.

1. I am directed to forward the accompanying papers regarding the employment of Veterinary Surgeon J. Thacker in investigating the nature of the cattle diseases of this Presidency, and experimenting on the best preventive and remedial measures for them. The importance of the subject needs no explanation, and Mr. Thacker's reports (enclosed) afford sufficient evidence of his professional skill and peculiar fitness for the duty.

2. The Government consider that a monthly allowance of Rupees 400 in addition to his Military pay and allowances, and his actual travelling expenses while engaged on this duty, will be a moderate remuneration to Mr. Thacker; and I am directed to request the sanction of the Government of India to this arrangement.

3. The expense thus entailed will be met from savings in the Budget grant.
