One brother, by name Syed Dooden Hussain Saib, age 27, employed in the Carvetnugger Zemindary.

REMARKS.—The Service Yeomiah, registered in the name of Hussain Yar Khan, amounting to Rupees 177 per annum, was originally granted by Nabob Wallajah on the 29th of Jamady sari of the Hegira 1203, (A. D. 1787,) to Alli Rajah for the performance of service in the Musjeed at Wallajahbad. At the time Moyenzabita of Fusly 1228 (which received the sanction of Government under date the 23rd April 1819) was prepared, this grant was in the enjoyment of one Abas Hussain Khan, adopted grandson of the original grantee. His name was then registered, and the allowance continued to him until the 4th January 1854, when he died, leaving a widow and two sisters. With the consent of these members of the family, the Yeomiah was registered in the name of Hussain Yar Khan, nephew to the deceased, under the Orders of Government, dated 5th June 1855, communicated with the Board's Proceedings of 4th July following, and he continued to perform the service and to draw the allowance until 30th June 1864. Hussain Yar Khan was about that time convicted by the Sessions Court of forgery, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Zillah Jail. The payments for the succeeding months thus fell into arrears. Shortly afterwards the five persons noted in the margin severally claimed that the Yeomiah should be continued in his name. Of these, the three first are in no way connected with the convicted Yeomiahdar, but Mahommed Ibrahim Hussain Kadri was his paternal uncle. This claimant, however, it appears died in 1865. The fifth claimant, Yasom Mohodeen Saib, is the brother of Hussain Yar Khan, and claims that the allowance be registered in his name, stating that the wife and minor son of the convicted Yeomiahdar are under his protection. From the Chittoor Tahsildar's Report it appears that Yasom Mohodeen Saib is the brother of Hussain Yar Khan, and that the wife and son of the latter live with him. Hussain Yar Khan has also got two other brothers named Mahomed Alli Khan, employed as Revenue Inspector in the Palmanair talook, and Syed Dodeen Hussain Saib, employed in the Carvetangger Zemindary. The Wallajah Tahsildar in his Urree, dated 21st June last, No. 109, reports that the service in the Musjeed at Wallajahbad is being performed uninterruptedly through a Naib appointed by Yasom Mohodeen Saib since the date of his brother's imprisonment.

Under these circumstances the Collector begs to recommend that permission be obtained to register the Service Yeomiah in the name of the minor son of Hussain Yar Khan named Azeezodeen, aged two, and to appoint Yasom Mohodeen Saib his guardian during his minority, and that the payment of the arrears, amounting to Rupees 442-8-0, up to 31st December 1866, be likewise sanctioned.

The Collector finds that Hussain Yar Khan has been released, the term of his imprisonment having expired.

1. Submitted to Government for their orders. Hussain Yar Khan has been in Jail for forgery, and his restoration cannot, in the Board's opinion, be acceptable to the community.
2. The Board would on these grounds recommend that the service be transferred to his brother in trust for his infant son.
3. The stipend should be commuted for land, and the Collector be required to submit a proposal accordingly.

No. 138. ORDER THEREON, 23rd July 1867. No. 1,673.

Miscellaneous.

Sanctioned as recommended by the Board.
