Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 25th July 1867.

No. 491. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th July 1867, No. 4,518.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Coimbatore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 6th July 1867, No. 157:—

On his return from Colligal on special duty, Mr. E. N. Overbury, Assistant Collector, went to the hills on one month's privilege leave. This leave expired on the 27th December 1866. On the 2nd January the Christmas holiday ended. Mr. Overbury's special duty being at an end, he remained on the hills. Being only temporarily attached to the district at the time, he did not think it necessary to come to the low country until his future destination was determined, especially as he was within the limits of the district. On the 20th January, he was obliged to apply for sick certificate, and was laid up with Colligal fever. The Deputy Accountant General calls for a certificate of the date on which Mr. Overbury made over charge of his Office before proceeding on sick leave, granted in Government Orders of 19th February 1867, in view to avoid retrenchment of his pay for the period extending from the 3rd to the 20th January 1867. I request that Government will authorize the Deputy Accountant General to pass the same without the certificate required by him. Mr. Overbury having finished his special work in Colligal, and having been only temporarily appointed to this district, there was no regular charge for him to take up in the low country, and therefore, until Government determined his future course, his residence on the hills was unobjectionable. In fact Mr. Overbury was entitled to this indulgence, as his health, as subsequent events have proved, had been shattered by his residence in Colligal.

Submitted to Government, with recommendation of the Board that instructions may be issued to the Accountant General to pass Mr. Overbury's salary bill from the 3rd to the 20th of January last, without further question, as it was with the Collector's permission that he remained on the hills during the interval.
