1	Masulipatam in Bunder talook.	Ruppes 96-4-0 per month.	By the English Government. Order of Madras Government, 28th February 1795.	No Sunnuds or other documents in support of the grant.	Charity. To be continued during the good pleasure of Government.	Tullial Khan alias Joolfakker Khan.	Barakatully Khan, son of the original grantee, died on 20th October 1866.	The whole amount of the allowance was enjoyed by the deceased.	Sons. 1. Hussain Ally Khan, aged 45 years. 2. Kumbum Beig, widow of the deceased's second son, aged 25 years. 3. Raheemany Sahab, third son, aged 30 years. Daughters. 1. Jayanee Begum, aged 48 years. 2. Pacha Begum, aged 47 years. 3. Asnut Begum, daughter of the deceased's brother, aged 50 years.	This family is very poor, and has no other means of livelihood than the allowance granted by the Government.	The father of the deceased was the son-in-law of the late Masulipatam Nabob. The deceased was residing at Hyderabad, and his monthly allowance was paid at Masulipatam to his agent on the receipt of his life-certificate from the Resident at Hyderabad. As the family of the deceased is destitute of any other means of livelihood, the Acting Collector begs to recommend that two-thirds, or Rupees 64-2-8, of the allowance enjoyed by the deceased may be renewed in the name of Hussain Ally Khan, the eldest son, from the date of his father's death, for the support of himself and other members of the family.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 2nd August 1867.

1. This is one of the pensions granted to the family of Hussain Ally Khan, who was the Amildar of the Northern Circars, when they were taken possession of in 1766.

2. The pensions were granted "during the pleasure" of Government, and they have generally been reduced and continued on lapse.

3. The pension now under consideration was assigned to Joolfakeer Ally Khan by Mr. Cobsford and Council in 1779, and was continued in full to his son Barakatully by the Collector, under the authority conveyed in Extract from Minutes of Consultation, 28th February 1795.

4. The Board concur with the Collector in recommending that two-thirds of the allowance should be continued to the eldest son of the deceased.
