Hafeez Syed Mahommed, who died on the 6th August 1866, had been in the enjoyment of an annual allowance of Rs. 138-11-8, being part of the grant of Rupees 186-11-8* entered opposite to his name (No. 541) in the Mohinzabitha of Fusly 1228, which received the sanction of Government, dated 23rd April, communicated with the Board's Secretary's letter of the 6th May 1819.

Stg. Cir. of the Board, dated 3rd Sept. 18[illegible], No. 4,762.
Do. ,, No. XII. of 1864.
† From 1st July to 31st Dec. 1866, at Rupees 138-11-6 per annum.

From the report of the Talook Serishtadar in charge of Chittoor talook, it appears that ever since the death of Hafeez Syed Mahommed, his eldest son, Syed Abdool Razauk, alias Goolam Sadaut, has been performing the service of Asaar. The Collector, therefore, begs to recommend, that the Board of Revenue will be pleased to accord their sanction for the continuance of this allowance to Syed Abdool Razauk, alias Goolam Sadaut, in whose name the grant has been registered under the Orders quoted in the margin, and for the payment of arrears amounting to Rupees 69-5-10.†

* The balance, Rupees 43, is enjoyed as a separate allowance by one Syed Oosman, under the Government Order, dated 11th December 1838.

1. From the list forwarded with the Principal Collector's letter, No. 139, dated 29th June 1838, the Board are led to believe that Syed Oosman was the son of the incumbent whom he succeeded, and that the individual referred to in the above Statement, Hafeez Syed Mahommed, shared with Syed Oosman the Yeomiah.

2. But there is nothing to shew by what right Hafeez Syed Mahommed had part in the Yeomiah, nor his relationship to Syed Oosman. The Collector is requested to clear up this point, and to state whether Syed Mahommed had an hereditary interest in the Yeomiah.

3. From the Order of Government of the 11th December 1838, to which the Collector refers at the foot of the foregoing Statement, it would seem the whole allowance, or Rupees 186-11-8, was conferred on Syed Oosman alone.

No. 33. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd July 1867, No. 4,614.

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Byreddipally, 25th May 1867, No. 128.

1. With reference to the Board's Proceedings, No. 2,452, of the 17th ultimo, I have the honor to state that the list forwarded with the Principal Collector's letter, No. 139, of 29th June 1838, was merely a statement of lapsed Yeomiahs which were recommended for renewal and were sanctioned accordingly in Government Order, dated the 11th December 1838. This Order was quoted by me solely for the purpose of shewing that Rupees 48 of the entire allowance of Rupees 186-11-8, as entered in the Mohinzabitha of Fusly 1228, was enjoyed under its authority by another person of the name of Syed Oosman.

2. As the Board, however, misled by the loose wording in the Remark column of that statement, appear to think that Hafeez Syed Mahommed had no right in the Yeomiah, I beg to refer them to No. 541 in the Register of charitable allowances, transmitted with the Collector's letter of 25th January 1815, as also to the same number in the statement forwarded on the 28th September 1818, which latter received the sanction of Government in their Order, dated the 23rd April 1819, communicated with Board's letter of 6th May following. From the former statement, the Board will find that Goolam Nabi (Khadim) and Syed Mahommed were the original grantees; and from the latter that Hafeez Syed Mahommed was the son of Goolam Nabi, one of those grantees, and succeeded to his share of the allowance. The allowance originally granted to those Yeomiahdars was Star Pagodas 60-9-34, or Rupees 210-11-8; but this appears to have been subsequently reduced to Rupees 186-11-8, as entered in the statement prepared in 1818. This amount has, apparently, ever since been paid in two separate portions of Rupees 138-11-8 to Goolam Nabi, the Khadim, (warden,) and after him to his son Hafeez Syed Mahommed; and of Rupees 48 to Syed Mahommed and his son Syed Oosman. It was with reference to this long recognised arrangement that these two sub-divided allowances were separately registered in the names of Hafeez Syed Mahommed and Syed Oosman, when the General Register of Yeomiahdars was prepared in 1849 under the Board's instructions. It further appears from this Register that the allowance is to be continued so long as the service is performed as is now being done.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 2nd August 1867.

3. With this explanation, I beg the Board will be pleased to sanction the continuance of the allowance enjoyed by Hafeez Syed Mahommed in the name of his son Syed Abdool Razah, alias Goolam Sadant.

1. Sanctioned, with reference to Board's Standing Order No. 178, and submitted for the confirmation of Government.

2. The Board think that the supervision of this Yeomiah should, subject to the holder's personal rights and privileges, be left hereafter with the Committee in the district appointed under Act XX of 1862.
