Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Madras, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 15th June 1867, No. 178:—

1. I have the honor to report the death of Yeomiahdar Cojadee Begum, which took place on the 1st October last.

2. The Yeomiah was for three lives, and its amount was for Rupees 32 per annum. One-third of it lapsed on the death of Meer Akbar Ally, the husband of Cojadee Begum, with whose demise terminates the second life. Rupees 10-10-8 per annum or Annas 14-3 per month now descend.

3. Meer Hussein Ally now comes forward claiming this third life allowance, and the Tahsildar of Madras reports after due inquiry that Meer Hussein is the legal heir of the deceased Cojadee Begum.

4. I have, therefore, the honor to request the Board will submit his case to Government, recommending the continuance of the allowance of 14 Annas and 3 Pies in his name.

5. The delay in submitting the case is owing to the difficulty experienced in proving the identity of the legal heir.

(Signed) G. THORNHILL,
Acting Collector.

1. The foregoing letter with the statements enclosed will be submitted to Government for their orders.

2. Meer Akbar Ally belonged to the family of the Satampauk Jaghiredar.

No. 881. ORDER THEREON, 19th August 1867, No. 1,936.

Miscellaneous.

Payment of the arrears and the continuance of one-third of the original allowance to the son of the deceased, are sanctioned, but the Collector will take the necessary steps for the commutation of this petty allowance into a single payment of a lump sum under the rules. It is evident that a monthly allowance of 14 Annas and 3 Pies cannot suffice for the maintenance of a family, which is said to have no other means of subsistence, but the amount of redemption money may be of some use to them.
