Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th February 1867.

No. 105. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd January 1867, No. 508:—

Read again Board's Proceedings of 30th November 1866, No. 8,588.

Read also the following letter from the Collector of Trichinopoly, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd December 1866, No. 298.

1. Upon re-considering the question of the additional Record-keeper being retained, I have the honor to reply, as follows, to Board's Proceedings, dated 30th November 1866, No. 8,588.

2. It must be remembered that these maps and records have been prepared at the cost of many thousand pounds, and many years of labor, they are consequently very valuable; but they are very perishable. It would doubtless be safer, more convenient, and more expeditious as regards reference to have one individual in charge of these valuable details; and this employé should be one from the Survey or Settlement Office. I now employ the Assistant Record-keeper, an intelligent Gumastah from Mr. Puckle's Office, who does this additional work satisfactorily, being remarkably quick. For the present, therefore, if the Board will sanction an increase of Rupees 5 to his monthly salary of 20 Rupees, I can manage. I would represent that, considering the additional and responsible work thus thrown upon Rungeshwara Row, the Assistant Record-keeper, in comparison with the duties of similar employés in other Provinces, it is only fair he should receive this small additional remuneration.

The final statements of revised Establishments have been already submitted to Government by the Honorable Mr. Pelly, but the small increase proposed by the Collector will be recommended for sanction, as the value to Government of the Survey records in charge of the Assistant is very great.

No. 106. ORDER THEREON, 9th February 1867, No. 339.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government sanction the addition of Rupees 5 to the monthly pay of the Assistant Record-keeper so long as he retains charge of the District Survey Records.

2. The charge can be debited to Contingencies.
