No. 34. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 15th January 1867, No. 30.

With reference to G. O. 14th September 1866, No. 2467, I am directed by the Commissioner to inform you that the Special Test Rules do not at present require that candidates for the office of Assistant Superintendent of Sea Customs should pass any test.

Enclosures 2.

2. He is of opinion, however, that from the 1st January 1868 the Sea Customs test should be made applicable to all such appointments, when the salary amounts to Rupees 50 a month or more.

3. While considering this question the Commissioner called on the Accountant General to furnish a list of appointments on salaries of Rupees 50 and upwards, which have not been included in the Special Test Rules.

4. Many of the appointments designated in this list differ in no material respect from those for which tests are already fixed. The Commissioner accordingly takes this opportunity of submitting, for the consideration of Government, two statements, in one of which are enumerated the appointments on salaries of Rupees 50 and upwards for which the Commissioner is of opinion that tests should be fixed, whilst in the other are enumerated the appointments which it still seems inexpedient to bring under the operation of the Special Test Rules.
