G. S. Forbes Esq

Collector of Gangan.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will do me the favor to submit, with your recommendation this my application for Privilege leave, to proceed to Madras & the Nizgheries, for 70 days, or for such period as I may be eligible under the Rules.

I beg to state that during my service of 22 years, the last 8 of which as Treasury Deputy Collector, I have taken Privilege leave but once, for One month on forfeiture of half my salary. I hope on the present occasion the Government will be pleased to grant me the leave on on full pay. I believe I am the only public servant in all this District who is required to forfeit half pay while on Privilege leave. However, I shall be thankful for any leave and on any conditions that the Government may be pleased to sanction.

The Steamer for Madras will touch at Gopurapore on the 3^d proximo; and I am anxious to avail myself of the opportunity.

I enclose telegraph stamps for 2½ Rupees for a telegram to you should my leave be gazetted.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Chatterpore
