To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

Miscellaneous.

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of India, the accompanying letter from Major J. Michael, late Commissioner for Madras to the late Paris Exhibition, subjoining a rough diagram of a method of preparing specimens of timber for Museums which he saw in that Exhibition, together with the Proceedings of this Government thereon, ordering the adoption of the plan as the standard in preparing all sample specimens of timber for public purposes.

Procs. of Govt., 16th April 1868, Nos. 290, 291.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Secretary to Government.
