Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd April 1868.

No. 487. Read the following telegram from Collector, Palamcottah, to Revenue Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 18th April 1868:—

April eighteenth. Your telegram received. Pullars are the only laborers here. Some are now employed on the Pudugudi channel; they work by contract at rates considered high by the Engineers. Some christian Pullars refused to work, and were allowed to stay at home.

No. 488. ORDER THEREON, 22nd April 1868, No. 1,073.

Miscellaneous.

The Government desire to know whether any pressure was brought to bear on any class of people, to secure their attendance on the works.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Secretary to Government.

To the Collector of Tinnevely.

The first dance I know of the very persons has brought to us many classes of people, & seems this after dances on the
