Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
30th April 1868.

No. 709. Dated 30*th April* 1868, No. 1,179.

Miscellaneous.

1. The promised instructions of the Supreme Government for the introduction of Act IX of 1868, for taxing professions and trades, have not yet been received, but as some special establishment for assessing and collecting the tax in the town of Madras will probably be necessary, and as the services of the establishment now employed for this purpose under Acts XXI and XXIX of 1867 are still required for closing the operations under these Acts, which will be superseded by the new Act, the Government resolve to sanction the retention of the present establishment from 30th April 1868, on which date the existing sanction expires, until further orders.

2. The Board will, however, in communication with the Collector, consider whether the establishment needs to be continued on its present strength with reference to future operations or at its present cost.

3. The information recorded during the past year should greatly facilitate the future administration of the tax.
