

I regret I have mislaid the letter It is to the effect - that he wants a good handworking apprentice, who is likely to remain for two years, at Pombacum. That it is a very good place to learn all kinds of work and that he Morris, will undertake to turn out the apprentice, if competent materials are given him, thoroughly competent for Revenue & ^{magnificent} ~~general~~ work of all kinds. ^{See all} ~~See~~ ^{WON} Mr. A. Tagg - is steady, industrious and intelligent & would seem the kind of person Mr. Morris seeks.
He will not be likely to be moved in promotion for a considerable time.
