Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th May 1868.

Read the following:—

No. 201. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 15th April 1868, No. 2,757.

Read the following Memorandum from the Deputy Accountant General, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Fort St. George, 17th March 1868, No. 6,844.

Vide your Proceedings, No. 1,832, dated 13th instant.

States that when appointments are in classes, an acting incumbent cannot draw more than the pay of the lowest class of the grade in which he is acting. This was clearly laid down in Supreme Government's letter to this Government, No. 104, of the 23rd April 1866, and, therefore, C. Sivasunkara Mudali is only entitled to moiety of his own pay 75 + 175 deputation allowance = 250 Rupees.

---

1. Submitted for the consideration and orders of Government.

2. By Government Order, 30th October 1867, No. 2,558, C. Sivasunkara Mudali was appointed to officiate as a Deputy Collector for special duty, and the consequent expenditure was to be met from the Inam Commission Budget.

3. M. Singaravalu Mudali was then appointed to fill the place of C. Sivasunkara as Head Clerk whilst he was on special duty, and it was anticipated that the full salary of the post would be available for the remuneration of the incumbent.

4. The Accountant General rules, that half this salary only is available, on the ground that C. Sivasunkara Mudali is appointed to act as a Deputy Collector, and that his allowance is calculated by adding half the pay of his permanent appointment to so much of deputation allowance as is requisite to make up the pay of a fourth class Deputy Collector.

5. As C. Sivasunkara's appointment is not to act for a Deputy Collector on the regular establishment, but to officiate in a special appointment, the expenditure for which is specially provided, the Board consider that M. Singaravalu is entitled to the full pay of Head Clerk whilst acting for him.

Referred to the Accountant General for his opinion.

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Secretary to Government.

21*st April* 1868.

No. 202. Memorandum from the Accountant General, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 23rd April 1868, No. 18.

1. The undersigned has the honor to report, that in accordance with the ruling contained in the letter from the Financial Secretary to the Government of India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, No. 104, dated 23rd April 1866, C. Sivasunkara Mudali is entitled as Acting Deputy Collector to half the pay of his own situation of Head Clerk and a deputation allowance equal to half the average pay of the several grades of Deputy Collector, but in all, not exceeding the full pay of the lowest grade of that class of appointments. Accordingly, Rupees 75 being payable to him as the half pay of Head Clerk, he is entitled to Rupees 175 as deputation allowance, the two sums being equal to the full pay of a 4th Class Deputy Collector.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
9th May 1868.

2. There is no rule under which the special circumstances of Sivasunkara Mudali's appointment can be held to authorize a departure from the standing orders applicable in these cases.

Accountant General.

No. 203. ORDER THEREON, 9th May 1868, No. 1,280.
