1. In continuation of my letter dated 22nd April 1868, No. 1,084, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of India, the further Season, &c., Reports, received from the Collectors of the districts marginally noted.

2. The state of things in the Kadiri talook of the Cuddapah district is so unfavorable, that the Government have empowered the Collector to carry out, at his discretion, whatever measures may be required for any description of relief, whether for providing work for the able-bodied poor, or food as alms for the aged and infirm. The grants formally sanctioned by Government for this talook amount to Rupees 10,000 for road-work, Rupees 5,000 for relief-houses, and Rupees 10,000 for work on wells and minor irrigation works. The Collector has also been authorized to carry out his proposal to furnish destitute ryots with seed-grain.

3. The Government have further sanctioned the Budget of Relief-works proposed for the Kistnagiri talook of the Salem district, at an estimated cost of Rupees 6,250; and have authorized the Collector of Nellore to sanction applications for aid in deepening or sinking wells to the extent of Rupees 5,000.

4. The Government have also deputed the Honorable T. Clarke, Senior Member of the Board of Revenue, to visit the Districts of Cuddapah, North Arcot, and Salem, and the Proceedings marginally noted contain the instructions issued to that gentleman.

Procs. of Govt., 29th April 1868, Nos. 665—669.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Secretary to Government.
