Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 27th May 1868.

No. 611. Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of the Godavery District, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Cocanada, 16th May 1868, No. 11 :—

In the Notification of the 8th May, published in the "Fort St. George Gazette" of that date, No. 4,269, page 1,088, all Tahsildars are appointed to exercise and perform within their respective talooks all the powers and duties conferred by Act IX of 1868 on the Collectors of Land Revenue, for the purpose of making assessments; but no Sub-Magistrates in charge of Divisions comprising the Zemindary tracts are empowered to do so. I, therefore, have the honor to request that the Government will be pleased to notify in the Gazette the extension of the same powers to the four Sub-Magistrates in this district in charge of the Divisions noted in the margin.

1. Cocanada.
2. Pittapur.
3. Coringa.
4. Tuny.
