1. I have the honor to submit Bill for my travelling allowance from Guntoor to this district, and, in reference to Government Notification published at pages 382, 389, and 522 of the second volume of the "Fort St. George Gazette" for 1862, I beg you will be so good as to obtain for me a certificate from the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, to the effect that my transfer has been made for the benefit of the public service, in view to support my claim to the allowance.

Though Guntoor was not in the Division of which I had charge in the Kistna district, I believe I am entitled to mileage from that place, because, with the permission of the Sub-Collector in charge of the district, I was relieved of my duties there by my successor, on the forenoon of the 11th instant.
