No. 113. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd May 1868, No. 3,784.

Read the following letter from the Acting Sub-Collector in charge of the Godavery District, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cocanada, 18th April 1868, No. 76 :—

1. The Board have in their Proceedings, dated 29th April 1859, No. 1,493, sanctioned the sub-division of the Krapa estate, and registration of the sub-divided portions, separately, in the names of the holders. But before the estates were registered accordingly, Karra Swaminayena, the proprietor of Anataveram died, leaving a son of five years and a widow. The Collector, Mr. Purvis, registered, therefore, the estate in the name of the minor, named Vissanna, and issued an Inayetnama to Anantamma, mother and guardian of the minor. She has been since then—although no order appears to have been passed to that effect—managing the affairs of the estate up to the time of her death, which is stated to have occurred on the 5th December 1867. The age of the boy, Vissanna, is fifteen years. Before her death, Anantamma addressed a petition to the Collector, requesting that her son-in-law, Saripally Vencatachenulu, might be appointed guardian to the minor and manager of the estate during the minority. The annual assessment of the estate, which consists of only one village, is Rupees 2,219. The Peishcush payable to Government is Rupees 1,764 ; annual income from the Inams, which are valued at Rs. 15,465, is Rupees 1,039 ; value of the movable property and houses is Rupees 1,300 ; the debts due by the proprietor are Rupees 10,320, and the debts due to the proprietor are nil.

2. Under the foregoing circumstances, I request the Court's instructions as to the management of the estate during the minority ; seeing that the estate is small and heavily involved, I think that Vencatachenulu, who is said to have been conducting the business of the estate since two or three years under the orders of his mother-in-law, Anantamma, may be allowed to manage the estate for the minor. He is reported, by the Tahsildar, to be a competent person.
