The deceased Pensioner, Vengama Naidoo, was elder son of the original grantee Moosal Naidoo. He succeeded to the allowance, under orders of Government, dated 23rd November 1838, communicated in Board's Proceedings of the 20th December 1838. 2. The sub-division of the allowance to the family, as recommended by the Collector and approved of by the Board in paragraph 4 of their letter to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 13th September 1838, No. 407, was continued. 3. The claimant, Chelma Naidoo, who is son of the last incumbent, is the legal heir and representative to succeed to the grant on the same conditions as his deceased father adhered to, to make the division of the allowance to members of the family, and I beg to state that the allowance has been continued to Chelma Naidoo from 21st September 1866, subject to the confirmation of Government through the Board of Revenue; and to request permission of the Board to pay to Chelma Naidoo the arrears due to his deceased father, from May to 20th September 1866. 4. The delay which occasioned in reporting this case to this office is accounted for by the Tahsildar to have been caused from severe illness of the claimant Chelma Naidoo, who was unable to appear before the Tahsildar to afford the necessary information to prepare the report for transmission to this office.

- Submitted for the confirmation of Government.
- Payment of the arrears, from the 21st September 1866, to the party in whose name the pension is now registered, is sanctioned subject to the audit of the Accountant General.
- The Collector will see that the arrears are duly distributed among the several members of the family who participate in the pension.
