Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th July 1868.

No. 172. Read the following letter from J. BROUGHTON, Esq., Quinologist to Government, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Ootacamund, 27th June 1868 :—

1. Some charges for extra coolies and extra writing, which were entered in my accounts for contingent expenses for April and May of this year, are objected to by the Accountant General, on the ground that they are in excess of the number sanctioned by Government. The amount in question is Rupees 17.

2. As similar expenses must henceforward frequently be incurred, I trust Government will be pleased to allow me to do so whenever it be necessary, provided such expenditure do not exceed my contingent sanctioned allowance of Rupees 120 per mensem. I had previously believed the contingent allowance to be intended to meet such expenditure.

3. It must, I think, be obvious that if it be necessary for me to ask permission of Government each time that I require an extra coolie, the delay and inconvenience caused by such restriction will operate injuriously on the progress of work. To obviate this, I trust Government will be pleased to give me suitable instructions for the future conduct of such necessities. Also, I request sanction for the foregoing amount of Rupees 17.

No. 173. ORDER THEREON, 9th July 1868, No. 1,908.

Miscellaneous.

The Government authorize Mr. Broughton to debit the description of charges in question in his contingent bill, and sanction those already incurred amounting to Rupees 17.
