No. 336. From the Secretary to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 10th July 1868, No. 257.

1. With reference to the Memorandum from the Collector of Ganjam and the letter from the Acting Collector of Madras, referred to this office, under dates the 25th June and 2nd July 1868, for remarks, I am directed by the Commissioner to observe that, under the ruling laid down by the Commissioner since the promulgation of the Revised Special Test Rules, whereby exemption was withheld from all candidates for any examination passed by them prior to 1865, neither of the individuals referred to by the Collectors of Ganjam and Madras is considered qualified for the post of Deputy Collector, inasmuch as Vinnakôta Senkaram passed the Translation Test in 1864, and Madabushi Parthasarathy Iyengar passed the Higher Grade of the Test in Criminal Law in 1863. "The Commissioner has always considered that the old system ceased with G. O., 21st July 1865, No. 197, and the new system having been introduced at the examination held in September 1865, it is presumed that any attempt to make a compromise between the two systems, or fuse one into the other, will, especially after the lapse of so long a period, tend to create interminable difficulties. The ruling above referred to is one which the Commissioner has uniformly enforced in a very large number of similar cases from the date the system was changed up to the present time."

2. With reference to Petition No. 2,182, I am directed to observe that A. Venkata Subba's name may now be included in the list of candidates who have qualified themselves for the grade of Deputy Collector under the old rules. In 1864 he passed in all but Precis Writing, in which subject candidates were not examined in that year. He was allowed to appear in 1866, when he passed and completed his examination. The non-entry of his name in the list furnished by this office was an oversight.

3. The name of N. Sooriah (Petition No. 2,273) was not included in the list of passed candidates for the grade of Deputy Collector, as he failed to pass the Precis Writing Test in 1866. By Notification of the 7th June 1867, however, Graduates of the University are exempted from passing that test, and Sooriah claims therefore a place in the list.

No. 337. ORDER THEREON, 18th July 1868, No. 1,988.

Miscellaneous.

1. Ordered that paragraph 1 of the last of the above letters be communicated to the Collectors of Ganjam and Madras.

2. Ordered also, that paragraph 2 be communicated to A. Venkata Subba Row, Sub-Magistrate of Denkencottah, and paragraph 3 to N. Sooriah Sastrulu, Head Clerk in the Office of the Inspector General of Police, whose names will be included in the list of candidates who have passed the test for the grade of Deputy Collector.

To
The Depty Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Sir,

I am given to understand that the general rank lately called upon Collectors to report the present offices and the period of service of persons who have passed the D.C. Colrs Test. I happened to see in the Bd Colrs office of this District the list of passed Candidates circulated to Collectors with your Orders but am sorry to find that my name has been unfortunately omitted in it.

I appeared for the D.C. Colrs Test in Feby 1864 but was passed only for Lr Std Test owing to the Commissioner for the Uncovenanted C.S. Exns having failed to examine the candidates in Precis writing. In 1866 I passed the Precis writing Test and the Commissioner was according by please to notify in the Govt Gazette that I am qualified for the post of Dy Collr under the old rules — vide page 814 Govt Gazette dated 9th April 1867 —

As the omission of my name in the list above referred to appears to be an oversight I beg you will be pleased to call upon the Collr of Salem to report my service &c — Tho' the object of Govt in calling for this information is not known I am led to suppose that the list is intended to be a record of ready reference when vacancies among the Dy Collrs have to be filled up and I therefore request that you will do me this favor —
