Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 20th July 1868.

No. 363. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th July 1868, No. 5,046 :—

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of the Madras District, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 16th June 1868, No. 203.

1. One William Jelly, a pensioned Private of the Madras Artillery, was appointed by Mr. Fane on the 16th March last as Distraining Officer on Rupees 85 a month in the Deputy Collector's office, Madras. Mr. Jelly has not passed the requisite examination, either the General Test or Precis-writing, to enable him to draw the high salary of Rupees 85, and his pay is, therefore, ordered now to be stopped by the Accountant General.

2. Mr. Fane, I learn, appointed Mr. Jelly to his present post because he thought that the duties which devolve upon Jelly as Distraining Officer are not of the kind which can be properly performed by the class of people who usually present themselves for the Civil Service Examinations, the place requiring one of European descent with fair acquaintance of the vernaculars, and able to endure the fatigues incident to a Distraining Officer. The Deputy Collector also has reported that Jelly has since proved himself in every way equal to the task, by exerting himself strenuously to collect the large arrears which were outstanding at the date of his appointment.

3. I have the honor, therefore, to request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government exempting Mr. Jelly from passing the tests requisite for the post of a Distraining Officer, and authorizing the Accountant General to pass his pay.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.

No. 364. ORDER THEREON, 20th July 1868, No. 2,002.

Miscellaneous.

Assuming that, as Distraining Officer, Mr. Jelly has to deal only with arrears of quit-rent arising in the limits of the Deputy Collector's range, the Government exempt him from passing the examination tests requisite for the post of Distraining Officer.
